

FIGURE A.6.2 Layout of a stack frame. The frame pointer ($fp) points to the first word in the currently executing procedure's stack frame. The stack pointer ($sp) points to the last word of the frame. The first four arguments are passed in registers, so the fifth argument is the first one stored on the stack.